1. Be over 18 years old.
2. Be aware of and accept the race rules and guidelines.
3. Correctly follow race entry procedures.

3.2 MEDICAL CERTIFICATE

No official medical certificate will be needed to participate in the BEYOND THE COAST SKY GRAN CANARIA™

3.3 MEDICAL FORM

All BEYOND THE COAST SKY GRAN CANARIA™ participants must complete the medical form found online during their registration to the race.

3.4 DISCLAIMER

All BEYOND THE COAST SKY GRAN CANARIA™ participants are aware that they voluntarily participate in the race and are under their own responsibility during the event. They therefore agree not to hold liable the organizing entity, collaborators, sponsors and other participants, for any liabilities involving runners and their families.

Race organizers will not in any case be held responsible for any accidents that occur as a result of an underlying sickness or health issue, imprudent behaviour, negligent disregard of the rules and regulations of the race, as well as incidents that may occur on the way to and from the race.

Runners must present the disclaimer along with the medical check.

3.5 PARTICIPANT RACE BEHAVIOUR.

3.5.1. Each runner has a duty of care to assist another race participant that may be in danger or who may have been in an accident and must inform the nearest control point of the incident immediately. Failure to provide assistance will result in the immediate disqualification from the race.

3.5.2. Each runner must bring their rubbish such as packaging, paper, organic waste, etc. to the rubbish points as advised by race organizers.

3.5.3. Each runner must stay on the race circuit as marked and signalled by the race organizers. Failure to do so or failure to pass by the established control points will result in a penalty that will be determined by the race referees and can, as determined by each individual case, result in a caution, to complete disqualification from the race.

3.5.4. Race participants must follow, at all times and throughout the race circuit, instructions given by race organizers.

3.5.5. Competitors should behave in a sporting manner at all times and be respectful to their fellow athletes, race referees and members of the race organizing team. Participants should also be respectful of the race facilities provided by the race organizers.

3.5.6. A race participant can retire from the race as they so desire but must do so in compliance with the following points.

- Abandoning the race must be done at a race control point and the race number must be handed in.

- The race participant will assume full responsibility for their actions and well being as soon as they voluntarily leave the race.
- Upon finalization of the control time-cut-off point, race organizers will facilitate the return to the finish line of those runners from the control point where they decide to retire from the race.

3.5.7. Each runner must bring their waste, tins, paper, etc. to the finish area or rubbish points as advised by race organizers. A broken walking stick can be handed in at a control point.

3.5.8. External help: Any runner accompanied by another person not in the race, be it a runner or not, will be considered to be receiving external help and shall be penalised from 3 minutes to disqualification, at the discretion of the Referee. It will also be considered as external help should any runners receive assistance or liquids or food outside of the official refreshment zones.

Article IV.

IMAGE RIGHTS, ADVERTISING AND DATA PROTECTION

4.1 IMAGE RIGHTS

The organizing race entity reserve in full exclusivity the image rights of the BEYOND THE COAST SKY GRAN CANARIA™, as well as the audio-visual, photographic and journalistic rights of the race. Any media or advertising entity should have full expressed permission in writing from the race organizers before proceeding. Photographers, whether they be professionals or amateurs, may take and publish photos of the race, if they name the event [BEYOND THE COAST SKY GRAN CANARIA™] and do not commercially use the photos. Any behaviour to the contrary may result in legal action as deemed appropriate.

4.2 ADVERTISING

All runners must wear, and in the correct area as advised by race organizers, any advertising material that may appear on race numbers or tape, etc. The changing in any way, folding or hiding of the afore mentioned advertising material will result in a PENALTY. Race participants are also responsible for the care and maintenance of any advertising material provided by the race organizers.

4.3 DATA PROTECTION

Upon entering any of the races of the BEYOND THE COAST SKY GRAN CANARIA™, participants give their consent for the race organizers to hold and use their personal data for purely sporting, promotional or commercial purposes.

Regarding Personal Data Protection, race participants have the right to access the race data banks to change or remove their own personal content fully or partially. To do so, please contact in writing the race organizers through the following address: runners@mooovetorun.com

Race participants also expressly allow the race organizers to use their name and surname, their result, race, their time and their image in any media platform (Press, Radio, TV, Social Networks, etc.).

4. Finish line: Tunte

There will be the following refreshment points available for the SKY AA21 runners throughout the race.

1. Tamadaba

2. Horno de Cal
3. Meta Puerto de las Nieves, Agaete

The refreshment point for the Uphill distance runners will be two and a half kilometres from the finish line, which the runners will have to walk.

6.2 RACE START AND FINISH

The race clock will start as per the scheduled race starting time, with or without all runners being present. Race participants who arrive more than 15 minutes after the start of the race will be disqualified.

Article VII. PENALTIES

7.1. Any runner who breaks any of the afore mentioned race rules in this race regulations document will be disqualified.

7.2. A runner or team may be penalised or disqualified should they break any of the following race rules:

7.2.1. Runners will be penalised (from 3 minutes) or disqualified should they take a short cut by not following the designated race route.

7.2.2. Runners will be disqualified should they receive any external assistance or refreshments (except first aid) from any individual (competing in the race or not) outside the control and refreshments areas.

7.2.3. Runners will be disqualified if they do not wear their race number, cut it in any way, or give it to another individual.

7.2.4. Refusal to wear, change or modify the brands of any race material supplied by race organizers will also result in disqualification.

7.2.5 Littering during the race will also result in disqualification.

7.2.6 Blocking another runner and not allowing other runners to pass shall be penalised from 3 minutes to disqualification.

7.2.7 Not having the required race material with you in each check point shall be penalised from 3 minutes to disqualification.

7.2.8 Ignoring instructions from race officials and race referees will also result in disqualification.

7.2.9 Not passing by any of the chip check points will also result in disqualification.

Article VIII.

CAUSES FOR RACE DISQUALIFICATION AND POSSIBLE SANCTION

8.1. Being aggressive or insulting to a competitor, a member of the race organizing team or race referee team or a spectator.

8.2. Deliberately causing an accident

8.3. The race committee will have the responsibility of establishing the severity of the penalties incurred. Penalties may range from time penalties to expulsion from the event, depending on the seriousness of the incident.

Article IX:

CONTROL POINTS

The race Control Points can be found in locations as outlined in the race booklet. Each control point will have a race official from the race organization. Failure to pass through a control point will lead to a penalty incurred by the athlete and such penalty will be determined by the race officials. Penalties may range from time penalties to complete disqualification from the race.

TIME CUT OFF POINTS

Each control point will have a Time Cut Off limit. Participants, who reach a control point after the time limit expires, will be eliminated from the race.

Article X:

NON-FINISHERS

Participants who abandon the race must do so at the Control Points. Should, because of an accident or injury, a participant be unable to move and get to a control point, they must begin the rescue procedure by telephoning race organizers on the Emergency Mobile Telephone number as written on the race number.

10.1 RACE DIRECTOR RIGHTS

Race Director can remove a runner from the race should they believe that the runner is physically or technically unable to continue due to fatigue, if a runner does not have the obligatory material or if they feel a runner is not able to continue in the race.

10.2 RACE MANAGEMENT

Race Directors may suspend the race, shorten, neutralize or stop the race as required for security reasons or for causes beyond the control or caused by race organizers, (weather, flooding etc).

10.3 RACE REFEREES

Race Referees are responsible for the Race Control Points. Runners who do not obey instructions from them will be disqualified. Participants can not appeal or query race rules, results, race timetables, etc. to Race Referees.

10.4 MEANS OF PROGRESSION DURING THE RACE

The only way of progressing through the race course is on foot. Any external help is forbidden, or any device apart the human body or walking sticks, is also forbidden in terms of progressing through the race distance. Due to the non-stop nature of the competition, participants must be sufficiently prepared to be able to undergo physical activity during long time periods without stopping and should be able to recover appropriately to be able to continue in the race, (except of course should they suffer from blisters, tendinitis, or similar injuries.)

10.5 SECURITY

Not wearing or having with you during the race any item of the obligatory race equipment as outlined by race organizers will result in disqualification from the race. The following items will also result in race disqualification:

- Not obeying instructions from race marshals and race assistants such as the Guardia Civil, Civil Defence, etc.
- Not helping a participant who needs first aid or medical assistance.
- Asking for help where none is needed.

For security reasons, walking sticks are not allowed during the first kilometre of the race in each of the different races. Participants must also cover the tips of their walking sticks, when they are not being used, with their safety covers to avoid harming other participants. Walking sticks should always be carried with their pointed ends towards the front.

Article XI:

COMPLAINTS

11.1. Complaints shall be made verbally to the Chief Referee. The Chief Referee will deal with verbal complaints concerning any technical or regulatory issues. Complaints concerning the provisional results shall be presented verbally to the Chief Referee within 30 minutes of the publication of the results.

Article XII:

RACE CANCELLATION

12.1 RACE CANCELLATION

MOVE RUN reserves the right to cancel the race for reasons beyond their control, as advised by the relevant authorities and/or because of adverse weather conditions. In such a case, race entry refunds will not be provided, nor will any costs incurred by race participants be covered (Article 2.2 of these Rules).

12.2 MODIFICATIONS

The current set of race regulations may be corrected, modified or improved at any moment by race organizers. Changes to any rule or part of the race may also be made to help ensure a successful race. Upon race entry, race participants give their consent to this rule.

12.3 AGREEMENT

Upon completion of race entry to the BEYOND THE COAST SKY GRAN CANARIA™, athletes agree that they accept the content of this Race Regulation charter.

Article XIII:

APPLICABLE REGULATIONS

For all matters not covered by these regulations, the rules established in the Spanish Athletic Federation Regulations, as well as World Athletics regulations, in that order, will be applicable.
